The * next to the instructor's name indicates that "classports" are accepted for this class.

***Pot Luck Agility - Random classes and random instructors. Each class will be "instructor's choice". You will not know what the class is or which instructor will be teaching the class until you show up for the class. The only requirements for this class are that you must use a "classport" and your dog must be able to safely perform all of the agility equipment. Due to the possibility of excessive heat during the summer, please check the website for possible cancellations before coming to class.

Classports can be purchased from any of the agility instructors. A classport allows you to attend 10 classes (your choice) at any time. You can randomly attend any of the classes listed above at any time that accept the classport. Classports have no expiration date. If you don't see a class you're interested in on this schedule, then you can use it on future classes.

Costs for all classes: Members: $25 Non Members: $99	"Classports" Members: $30 Non Members: $99
