

The Nose Knows!

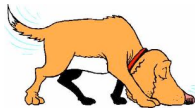

Intro to K9 Nose Work Class

K9 Nose Work is a fun activity for human and dogs that develops your dog's natural scenting skills through fun games. By utilizing basic search dog skills, this sport builds confidence, burns off mental and physical energy and reinforces the bond between dog and owner.

When: June 3rd, 2012: 10am-12pm and 1pm-3pm

Where: Kuliga Dog Training Club,
3330 Reading Road (1st Fl),
Cincinnati, OH 45229
For driving directions, go to:
www.kuligadtc.com, then click on 'How to find us'.

What to bring: Your very hungry dog and his/her very favorite treats and/or their very special toy. The dog should be wearing a buckle collar or harness during the searching exercise.

Cost: $60 per working and $20 per audit slot, maximum of 10 working dog/handler teams per two hour session.

Instructor: Peg Furman, ANWI. Also check out www.k9nosework.com and www.nacsw.net for more information .

How to register: Contact us directly by email to info@kuligadtc.com or call (513) 367-1604 to register. Attendance is limited so please register very soon to guarantee your spot! (Dogs will work one at a time and dogs must be able to be quiet in a crate during portions of the session). For more information about this clinic, go to www.kuligadtc.com.

